EARNS FIVE STARS FROM FORBES ADVISOR

Forbes Advisor has named Transamerica Life Insurance Company as one of best term life insurance companies of November 2021. According to Forbes Advisor, Transamerica earned a five-star rating because the company offers good prices and top-notch term life policy benefits.

Transamerica was recognized for being consistently among the best for rates, having a high age limit for renewing customers, imposing no restrictions on decreasing policy coverage amounts, offering living benefits available for chronic illness, and allowing policyholders to access their own death benefits for cash.

Transamerica was the only term life insurance company to receive a full five stars in Forbes Advisor's November 2021 review. Forbes Advisor provides knowledge and research to help people make informed financial decisions.
