

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BALTIMORE – March 31, 2021

Transamerica sells its corporate venture portfolio to Montana Capital Partners

Transamerica announced today that it has reached an agreement to sell its portfolio of fintech and insurtech companies to Swiss-based private equity firm Montana Capital Partners. Following the transaction, Transamerica will continue to work with portfolio companies.

The transaction will further simplify Transamerica's business. This is in line with Transamerica's strategy to actively manage its portfolio of businesses, allocating capital to activities with a greater potential for an attractive return on capital, and where Transamerica is well positioned for growth. Transamerica is part of the Aegon group of companies. The transaction will not have a material impact on Aegon's capital position and results.
