Transamerica Supports Two Athletes in the 2015 Special Olympics World Games
Brazil's Adilson Silva and the Netherlands' Sanne Jone Hoedeman to compete in Los Angeles

Transamerica announced today it is supporting two athletes who will compete in the Special Olympics World Games Los Angeles 2015: tennis player Adilson Silva from Brazil and track-and-field athlete Sanne Jone Hoedeman from the Netherlands. The LA2015 World Games will be held from July 25 – August 2, 2015 in Los Angeles, and will be the largest sports and humanitarian event in the world this year.

In addition to Mr. Silva and Ms. Hoedeman, the 2015 World Games will welcome more than 6,500 Special Olympics athletes from 165 nations to compete in 25 Olympic-type sports.

“At Transamerica, we’re committed to empowering individuals and families to fulfill their potential and achieve their ambitions,” said Mark Mullin, president and CEO of Transamerica. “Adilson and Sanne are the embodiment of potential, dedication, hard work, and high ambition. We’re so proud to support them and all that they will achieve at the 2015 Special Olympics World Games.”

Transamerica employees will support the World Games “Fans in the Stands” program where the Transamerica family will cheer on Adilson and Sanne during the Games.

“Thanks to the generosity of Transamerica and our other corporate supporters, athletes like Adilson and Sanne are able to pursue their talents and dreams by participating in the Special Olympics World Games,” said Steven Vanderpool, senior vice president of communications and media operations for the LA2015 World Games. “Transamerica’s commitment to supporting all who want to achieve healthy lifestyles aligns with Special Olympics’ mission to provide children and adults with intellectual disabilities continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage and experience joy. We look forward to the 2015 World Games where so many will share their gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympics athletes and the community.”

The World Games Opening Ceremony will take place at the Memorial Coliseum, site of the Opening Ceremonies of the 1932 and 1984 Olympic Games, on Saturday, July 25 and will be televised live by ESPN.
